JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: 8 MONTHS

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that she is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Sadie Knotts-Hudson, is hereby committed on Count 2 of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 8 months.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of five years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and Second Amended General Order 20-04. 2.

3. The defendant shall reside for a period of [6] months in a residential reentry center community corrections component, as directed by the Probation Officer, and shall observe the rules of that facility.
4. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
5. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
6. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the program by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer.
7. The defendant shall submit her person and property – including any residence, premises, vehicle, container, papers, effects, and computers, cellular telephones, and other electronic communication or digital storage devices or media under his control --- to search and seizure at any time of the day or night by any law enforcement officer or Probation Officer, with or without a warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion.
8. The defendant shall report to the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office within 72 hours of her release from custody.
9. The defendant shall report in person directly to the Court within 21 days of her release from custody, at a date and time to be set by the United States Probation Office, and thereafter report in person to the Court as directed during her first year of supervised release.
10. The defendant shall not possess, have under the defendant's control, or have access to any firearm, explosive device, or other dangerous weapon, as defined by federal, state, or local law.
11. Within three (3) days of release from prison, the defendant shall register as a sex offender, and keep the registration current, in each jurisdiction where the defendant resides, is employed and is a student, pursuant to the registration procedures that have been established in each jurisdiction. When registering for the first time, the defendant shall also register in the jurisdiction in which the conviction occurred if different from the defendant's jurisdiction of residence. The defendant shall provide proof of registration to the Probation Officer within 48 hours of registration.

12. The defendant shall participate in an evaluation by a trained professional, approved by the Probation Office, to assess the defendant's risk to the community as a sex offender. The evaluation may include physiological testing, such as polygraph and Abel testing. The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report, and any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the evaluation provider.
13. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the sex offender risk evaluation to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If the defendant has no ability to pay, no payment shall be required.
14. The defendant shall not contact the victim(s), or, by any means, including in person, by mail or electronic means, or via third parties. Further, the defendant shall remain at least 100 yards from the victim(s) at all times. If any contact occurs, the defendant shall immediately leave the area of contact and report the contact to the Probation Officer.
15. The defendant shall submit to a search, at any time, with or without warrant, and by any law enforcement or probation officer, of the defendant's person and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers, cell phones, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, email accounts, social media accounts, cloud storage accounts, effects and other areas under the defendant's control, upon reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervision or unlawful conduct by the defendant, or by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report, and any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information (excluding the Presentence report), to State or local social service agencies (such as the State of California, Department of Social Service), for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation.

The Court recommends that the defendant be designated to a Southern California facility to facilitate visitation with family, friends, and loved ones.

The Court recommends that the USPO designate the defendant to a facility near San Pedro, California for her 6 months in the Residential Reentry Center.

The Court strongly recommends that the Bureau of Prisons allow the defendant to participate in the

Docket No.: 2:22CR00565-2

Residential Drug Abuse Program (RDAP) to assist in treating his drug addiction.

The defendant is advised of her limited appealant rights.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
